CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, FRESNO

A Look Back

Being a diverse and inclusive university is important for Fresno State where cohorts of students have become world changers and leaders in all walks of life. At Fresno State we nurture cultural competence by celebrating diversity and welcoming all.

Fresno State joined the rest of our nation to celebrate diversity through highlighting international students, programs, and engaging activities during the annual International Education Week in November. Fresno State continues to internationalize our student and community experiences.

For example:

- International Coffee Hour that exposes our campus and local communities to the rich cultures of a specific country.
- Bulldog Global program that pairs American students with international students to form lasting friendships and supportive relationships.
- Campus and President are committed to supporting Equity, Diversity and Inclusion, through various programs and initiatives including Cross Culture and Gender Center or offering enriching ethnic studies programs.
- Collaboration that brings global voices together, such as our recent Global Student Voices LIVE forum between Fresno State, Myanmar and Japanese Students and the annual International Teleconference held each spring.
- Cultural Clubs and Organizations turn students' vision and passion into actions

We received 8 Higher Education Excellence in Diversity (HEED) Awards, from INSIGHT into Diversity magazine, the oldest and largest diversity-focused publication in higher Outcomes of internationalization flourish in different ways. Scholarly accomplishments of faculty and staff resulting from worldwide collaboration can be seen as bright lights on a global map. Talented students from approximately 77 countries are learning and growing together with American students.

Take part in one or more of the above activities as soon as spring 2022 arrives and the colors of flags are waving at you!
