1. I understand that J-1 scholar is required to maintain health insurance for and any J-2 dependents throughout J-1 exchange visitor program in the U.S. Failure to maintain such health insurance while in the United States will be considered a violation of J-1 status and may lead to termination of the J-1's legal status by U.S. federal regulations.

2. I understand that there are minimum requirements for each J-1 scholar and J-2 dependent listed below:

- Medical benefits per accident or illness of at least: $100,000 minimum
- Repatriation of Remains: $25,000
- Expenses related to Medical Evacuation: $50,000
- Deductible per accident or illness not to exceed $500
- The insurance must cover "pre-existing conditions" after a reasonable waiting period

3. I understand when checking in with International Office upon arrival, J-1 visiting scholar is required to purchase health insurance through Fresno State, which fulfills Department of State requirements. The monthly rate of J-1 insurance is around $120, subject to change without further notifications.

4. I understand I need to submit a report to International Office at the end of the J-1 exchange program to reflect educational and cultural exchange results while I was at Fresno State.

5. I understand I am eligible to receive a J-1 exchange visitor certificate upon completion of my J-1 visiting program.

Acknowledgement: I have reviewed the information and I understand all that I have read and acknowledge that I will abide by the rules and procedures outlined here.
